

Title of the activity:	My Diversity is my strength / awareness about violence towards women and how to have a better social and professional integration
Organisation/facilitator:	Solidarité femmes 13 / DEVMED
Purpose:	Introduce the fundamentals of violence (domestic and sexual), and present the basics of work done to accompany the victims socially, legally and psychologically.
Learning objectives:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Better master the socio-political context of violence against women, in particular domestic and sexual violence</li> <li>• Understand how violence against women fits more broadly into a hetero patriarchal system and into our own social representations</li> <li>• Learning about the fundamentals of violence</li> <li>• Learning how can we accompany women to surpass these difficulties and how their diversity could be a strength</li> </ul>
Instructions for the development (methodology and content, methods, techniques and steps of the implementation):	Module 1: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Key figures</li> <li>- Legal benchmarks and framework, definitions</li> <li>- Difference between violence and conflict</li> </ul> Module 2: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- History of violence against women &amp; patriarchy</li> <li>- Social representations and interpretations</li> <li>- Gender stereotypes</li> <li>- Difficulties to integrate socially and professionally</li> </ul> Module 3: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Identification elements (statistics)</li> <li>- Fundamental notions</li> <li>- Mechanisms of influence</li> <li>- Cycle of violence</li> <li>- How to get out of this cycle and start a better professional and social integration</li> </ul>
Duration:	2 hours
Size and characteristics of the group:
Environment and context; tools and materials needed:	Video projector
Supporting documentation:	PowerPoint presentation
Tips for the facilitators:	